PAPA'S UPDATE

2017 has been a good year at NOH. All the children, from our youngest Hope Angel at four years and eight months, to those now reaching twenty-five and more, have had personal breakthrough moments, epiphanies of both mind and soul, catalyzed by situations good or challenging, as they continue to develop character and skill ahead of their age. Profound moments of realization for the individual and joyful moments for the rest of us to share with them... Continue reading here

OUR CHILDREN'S SUCCESSES

From scholarships in dentistry and basketball, to a new program in hotel management and exciting business startups such as a local café, a tailoring shop and a trekking company, each of our children are showing their talents. We have so much to be thankful for. Read more here

OUR DONORS HAVE BIG HEARTS - THANK YOU!

I believe that all our donors know the depth of appreciation NOH has for their support. I find as meaningful the donor who can give $5 as those who manage to raise or simply donate much larger amounts, and my letters to you all are sincere attempts at ensuring your understanding of the benefit the donation has to our work in Nepal.

Here are just a few of our compassionate supporters.

A SPECIAL THANK YOU FROM MICHAEL HESS!

My deepest gratitude to all those who support us financially, spiritually, actively, and by sharing with others about us. These kids and the hundreds of people whose lives we help make easier and more understandable, and the happiness of our staff, all have you to thank for our wonderful lives.

Happy Holidays!
Papa
